Journal of Anthropology

CALL FOR PAPERS

Totem is a peer-reviewed, student-run journal of anthropology published annually in association with the Anthropology Society and the Department of Anthropology at The University of Western Ontario. We are excited to announce the 2012/2013 volume was the second most popular publication (second only to the electronic theses and dissertations) accessed at Western.

Totem's mandate is to publish exceptional works of creative and original research by graduate and undergraduate students in any of the four sub-fields of anthropology including sociocultural anthropology, archaeology, physical anthropology, and linguistics. Totem is dedicated to providing a forum for undergraduates and graduate students in anthropology to present and discuss their work with their peers. Due to anthropology's interdisciplinary nature, we invite students from other disciplines and institutions to submit papers of value or interest to anthropology and anthropologists. Be a part of the 22nd volume and submit your papers!!
