Eric Rumble
Editor-in-Chief
Alternatives Journal

Robert Shirkey, lawyer, WLU alumnus and founder of Our Horizon, will be discussing the psychology, economics and law behind his organization's proposal to have municipalities pass by-laws that would require climate change warning labels on gas pumps. The idea was recently included as an item for future consideration in the Waterloo Region Climate Action Plan. Mr. Shirkey will also publicly reveal what city recently voted to pursue this idea. The talk will be followed by an audience discussion moderated by Eric Rumble, Editor-in-Chief at Alternatives Journal.
