

Studies in Islam Speaker Series 2014

Dr. Aitana Guia

Department of History, York University

Islam in Europe or European Islam? The Muslim struggle for civil rights and belonging in postwar Europe

This talk will explore the social and political history of Muslims in postwar Europe. It will analyze key debates and controversies, including how Muslim immigrants have focused attention on questions of citizenship and belonging, the division between secular and religious life, and the shape and extent of cultural and women's rights
