The Racecraft of Islamophobia:
Public Rhetoric and the Racialization of Islam

In the fifteen years since 9/11, the racialization of Muslim peoples in the United States and Canada has intensified. In this talk, Dr. Condon examines the rhetorical means by which diverse peoples worldwide – who share a faith tradition – have been increasingly represented as a “race” that may more easily be marginalized and criminalized in the west and around the world.

The lecture is free, but registration is required at www.eventbrite.ca
