

2017 RODNEY AND LORNA
SAWATSKY VISITING SCHOLAR

ROOM ENOUGH FOR HOPE:

CANADA'S RESPONSE TO THE REFUGEE CRISIS

PUBLIC LECTURE:

FRI, MARCH 3, 2017
7:30 PM | GREAT HALL

Conrad Grebel University College
Reception to follow

FEATURING
DR. MARY JO LEDDY

Dr. Mary Jo Leddy is a writer, theologian, and social activist well known for her work with refugees, including as founder and director of Romero House in Toronto. She is author of The Other Face of God: When the Stranger Calls Us Home (2011) and Our Friendly Local Terrorist (2010), among many other publications. Leddy is an adjunct professor at Regis College, and an Honorary Fellow at the University of St. Michael's College, both at University of Toronto.

This lecture is named in honour of the late Dr. Rodney Sawatsky, past president of Conrad Grebel University College, and his wife Lorna.