

Reconciliation Book Club

{ words worth books }

- SINCE 1984 -

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO

Gender and Social Justice

Each month, as part of her Reconciliation Book Club, Pam Palmater (a Mi'kmaw lawyer, member of the Eel River Bar First Nation, and Ryerson professor) assigns a book and discusses it on her YouTube channel.

Words Worth Books and University of Waterloo's program in Gender and Social Justice invite you to meet in person to discuss Prof. Palmater's selections.

Words Worth will stock the books Prof. Palmater assigns. At the end of each month, Prof. Palmater will discuss each book in a new video on her channel. The first Wednesday of the next month, we'll meet to discuss that month's book and Prof. Palmater's discussion of it. This event is free. No RSVP necessary. Come once or as many times as you like!

WHEN

1st Wed. each month
7:00-8:30 p.m.

WHERE

Words Worth Books
96 King St. S.

For more info:

Email Shannon Dea at sjdea@uwaterloo.ca

UNIVERSITY OF WATERLOO