

FALL TERM 2022

PACS 301

Special Topics in PACS:

Environmental Justice and Racism

11:30–12:50 PM | TUES & THURS
with Prof. Jada Koushik

Join us to examine how the environment intersects with issues of race, class, gender and health to contribute to conflict in Canada and beyond. The significance of racism is central to this course, and we will explore concepts of peace, environmental justice and social determinants of health.
