

Université de Sherbrooke is renowned for its human dimension, its innovative approach to education, and its partnering with professionals. At both its campuses in Sherbrooke and Longueuil, UdeS offers work environments which foster personal and professional achievement.

Interest Call

ASSISTANT PROFESSOR OF ENGLISH AND INTERCULTURAL STUDIES

(TERM POSITION)

Faculty of Arts, Humanities and Social Sciences
Department of Language, Literature and Communications

Main Sherbrooke Campus

Offer 00690

Université de Sherbrooke invites applications for a full-time, limited-term position as an Assistant Professor of English and Intercultural Studies. This is a one-year appointment with possibility of renewal.

PRIVILEGED FIELD OF EXPERTISE

- Acquisition of English as a Second Language

Review of applications will begin no later than August 31, 2010 and will continue until the position is filled.

Université de Sherbrooke values diversity, equality and employment equity in its community, and welcomes applications from all qualified persons, in particular women, members of visible and ethnic minorities, native people and disabled persons.

Check our website for the full description of all our job opportunities, then submit your application online.

www.USherbrooke.ca/emplois

UNIVERSITÉ DE
SHERBROOKE

MAIN CHALLENGES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

- Undergraduate and graduate teaching in English Studies, specifically in linguistics applied to the teaching and acquisition of English as a second language.
- Involvement in the development of the Language Centre.
- Participation in the Baccalauréat en enseignement de l'anglais langue seconde in collaboration with the Faculty of Education.
- Collaboration with colleagues specializing in Canadian literature, comparative literature, professional writing, and translation.
- Research in related fields, preferably in English as a second language, in the teaching of literature in a second language, or in intercultural studies.
- Supervision of undergraduate and graduate work; thesis direction.

REQUIREMENTS

- PhD in applied linguistics or education, with a specialization in English as a second language.
- Native or native-like fluency in spoken and written English.
- Experience in university teaching.
- Knowledge of current ESL programs and their development.
- Knowledge of French.
- Ability for team work and research.
- Experience in the area of specialization (in research or in curriculum development), in the teaching of literature in a second language, or in intercultural studies will be considered major assets.

Life is part of the program