

Chocolate Woman Dreams the Wilby Way

This play tells one woman's story of how she saves her own life by returning to her ancestral land and connecting to powerful female forces within Kuna cosmology, such as Chocolate Woman.

Written by Monique Mojica
Directed by Jose A. Colman

Performers: Monique Mojica and Gloria Miguel

Chocolate Woman Dreams the Milky Way

Taking the narrative structure of Kuna mola (textile) art and the literary structures of the pictographic writing that notate Kuna healing chants, this play, embodies a journey of healing and reclamation.

Venue: _____

Helen Gardiner Phelan
Playhouse at the University of Toronto – 79A St George St,
Room 302

Previews: _____

May 31st & June 1st, 2011

Opens: _____

June 2nd, 2011

Closes: _____

June 19th, 2011

Performances: _____

Tuesday-Saturday at 8 PM;
Sunday at 2 PM

Tickets: _____

$20; Student/Senior $10

Tickets are available for purchase through TO Tix online at totix.ca or at the booth. Tickets may be reserved by calling 647-717-6129 or emailing wnanibush@gmail.com