

Field School in Medieval Theatre Studies

August 11th to August 26th, 2014

Queen's Drama Program and the BISC

Highlights

Undergraduate students at Queen's University have the opportunity to participate in a two week immersive experience during England's Medieval Festival at Herstmonceux Castle, the home of the Bader International Study Centre. The Medieval Festival at the Castle is Britain's largest and most magnificent celebration of the colourful Middle Ages.

Be sure to visit the website at www.englishmediievalfestival.com/

Location

The field school is based at the East Sussex campus of Queen's University, the Bader International Study Centre. The BISC is located in Herstmonceux Castle, an hour and 20 minutes by train south of London. The ancient castle sits on 600 acres of parkland with extensive gardens and trails. The cities of Eastbourne, Hastings and Brighton are just a short drive away. In addition, students can easily participate in independent travel throughout Europe before or after the program.

Plan of Study*

DRAM 271/3.0 – Medieval Dramatic Literature

DRAM 273/3.0 – Medieval Dramatic Performance

Prerequisite: DRAM 100 or permission of the department

*Pending Approval. Further course details will be available on the website in December.

Timing and Costs

Instruction at the Castle will begin on August 11th. The Field School will conclude on August 26th at the end of England's Medieval Festival. The total cost for the program is $2,950 CAD. This includes tuition for 2 courses/6 units, residence and meals while at the Castle, field study trips, entrance fees, and scheduled shuttle service to and from the airport at the beginning and end of the Field School. Students are responsible for their own transportation to and from the UK, health and travel insurance, visas (if applicable) and personal spending money.

For further information, contact:

Jenn Stephenson, Undergraduate Chair, Drama

jenn.stephenson@queensu.ca

Lynn Sadlowski, BISC Admission Representative

lynn.sadlowski@queensu.ca

Further Information can be found on our website in early December

www.queensu.ca/bisc