Drama Instructor History, Theory, and Criticism 4-Month Term

The Department of Theatre & Dramatic Arts at the University of Lethbridge invites applications for a 4-month term appointment in History, Theory, and Criticism, at the rank of Instructor, starting January 1, 2015, subject to budgetary and Board approval.

Applicants should possess a PhD (or ABD) in theatre/dramatic arts, a record of scholarly activity, and experience in teaching at the post-secondary level. The University aspires to hire individuals who have demonstrated excellence in teaching and creative activity, and have the potential to contribute actively to the Department of Theatre & Dramatic Arts and the Faculty of Fine Arts.

The successful candidate will teach a three-course load of core and elective courses in Drama, including theatre history, Canadian theatre, and theatre theory.

The Faculty of Fine Arts offers degree programs in Drama, Art, Music and New Media within a liberal education context, and focuses on excellence in teaching and research/creative activity. The Centre for the Arts features outstanding equipment, facilities, and staff.

Interested candidates are asked to submit a letter of interest describing all areas of teaching expertise, a current curriculum vitae, and a statement of teaching philosophy. Please arrange for three letters from qualified referees to be sent directly to the Dean by the closing date. Any submissions of electronic images, audio, or video must be received on a disc (.jpg, .mpg, or audio file).

Closing date: Applications must be received by April 25, 2014

Address applications by email, fax, or regular mail to:
