

Mount Allison University is pleased to invite applications for the J.E.A. Crake Drama Fellowship for the winter semester 2020.

The Crake Drama Fellowship is supported by the J.E.A. Crake Foundation and is open to Canadian citizens and permanent residents, and the successful candidate will contribute to a non-conservatory inter-disciplinary program in Drama Studies that supports an extensive season of theatrical production in one of Canada's top-ranked undergraduate universities.

The Fellow, an artist-scholar with the minimum qualification of an MFA or equivalent experience, will be asked to contribute, as part of a team of theatre professionals and academics, in ways appropriate to her/his qualifications and experience, and, in particular, 1) teach one three-credit course to be determined in consultation with the Director of Drama; 2) supervise student projects as a member of a teaching team; and 3) provide a public presentation or an artistic outcome.

The Fellow is expected to be in Sackville during the term of the appointment, from 15 December 2019 to 15 April 2020, except for Christmas vacation and time required to attend the occasional conference or professional meeting. According to parameters established by the funding Foundation, the Drama Fellow will not undertake other paid employment during the academic semester. There is the possibility of renewal for one further eight-month contract during the next academic year.

Review of applications will begin on 22 November 2019 and will continue until the position is filled. Applications must include a complete résumé, transcripts where appropriate, and three letters of reference, and should be emailed to:
