

VIRTUAL

Publication Development Forums

SAMPLE SCHEDULE

Each forum consists of 7 sessions: 3 group sessions (fixed times on first & last day) and 4 mentor sessions (flexible).

Prior to the Forum:

- Watch recommended videos on topics related to your writing goal (links to be provided).
- Prepare the work-in-progress manuscript (25-50 pp).

Day 1

- Introductions, info session, Q&A (1.5 hours)
- Participants' share their research with the group followed by a group discussion (2 hours)

Day 2

- One-on-one meeting with mentors (1 hour)
- Peer mentoring with other participants (1 hour)

Day 3

- Recommended free day to reflect on advice received.

Day 4

- One-on-one meeting with mentors (1 hour)
- Peer mentoring with other participants (1 hour)

Day 5

- Closing session, Q&A, and next steps to maintain mentor/mentee relationships until publishing goal is reached (1.5 hours)

TO APPLY:

Complete this Google Form. Please note the correct application deadline for your desired Forum (6/8 or 7/6). Acceptance is a commitment to participate in the whole nine-hour program. Participants should have a draft article, essay for a collection, or book proposal to submit two weeks before the event (25 - 50 pp max).

TESTIMONIALS:

"[The PDF] was an ideal balance of advice from leaders in the field, peer engagement, and individual mentorship."

"To know that our... leaders in the field are willing to put the work in to help those navigating the waters of contingent labor (and who often, by nature of contingency, don't have many resources to help themselves otherwise) is an incredible mark of valor."

"This forum is an incredible step towards... eliminating the stigma of contingent labor in the publishing world."

Questions? Email tdps.pdf@gmail.com