Dramaturgy at Work

Threading Through Experimental Dance, Performance and Theater

Bojana Cvejić

Starting out from the author's extensive practice as a dramaturg and educator, this book identifies and elucidates the varied selection of dramaturgical tools that have been used in the experimental practices of contemporary dance, theatre, and performance in Europe since the early 2000s. This is a fresh and enlightening book for anyone doing, discussing or thinking about dramaturgy, at university level, in professional practice or beyond.
